ABOUT THE STATE

W. D. Kirby brought to Middlebury Saturday morning a large blue heron which he shot on his farm at Salisbury Friday afternoon. This bird measured six feet from tip to tip.

One of the largest crowds in history attended the excursion to Lake George from Rutland over the Delaware & Rod-dard railroad Sunday. The train was made up of 17 cars carrying over 1500 people.

During the thunder showers Friday noon lightning struck the dwelling house of Joseph DuBois in the southwestern part of the town of Lincoln.
The fire was quickly put out and none of the family were injured.

W. T. Patterson of Monkton has a bull calf, five months old, which weighs 513 pounds. When three months old the calf weighed 400 pounds and while being fed on milk and hay the calf gained 113 pounds in 31 days.

The storm at Lake Mansfield Friday was so severe, accompanied by the hail, that the large hotel across the road on the veranda of the Club House, Brooks that had been dry for some time were transformed into torrents.

The first soldier of the 10th cavalry, now stationed at Fort Ethan Allen in Burlington to apply for a marriage license is Mitchell A. Harris, a native of Massachusetts. The bride to be is Miss Sylvia Le Goff of Monkton, in the Philippine Islands, and she is expected to arrive in the city within a week.
Miss Le Goff is a native of Manila.

The horse and gig which was stolen from John Hale of Fairfield Saturday night was found Monday by officers in a lot about one and a half miles from home. The team showed the effects of hard driving, and is supposed to have been returned by the driver, who is supposed to be Harry Stammen, who has thus far kept ahead of the officers.

Eugene Cowles of Derby, the well known opera basso, has been engaged by Lew Fields to play the role of the General in the Victor Herbert opera, "The Rose of Algiers," next season.
Van Ness Harwood, formerly of the Rutland Herald and latterly with the New York World has become press representative of the new theatre in New York.

While at work on a staging at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the John Ballard farm in Timonah, R. M. Pike and his son Earl Pike, both of Clarendon, fell a distance of 25 feet and both received numerous injuries. The father was seriously injured, having a badly sprained hip, and it is feared internal injuries, while his son was badly bruised and had his left arm sprained.

Since the return of Papal Delegate Salvatore of Washington, D. C., has brought no news of the appointment of a bishop for Burlington it is expected that some time will elapse before one is appointed. It was thought the return of the papal delegate would have a tendency to bring matters to a head, but on the other hand it is understood that additional information regarding the subject has been asked for and this probably means a delay of at least two months.

The members of the jury for the September term of Chittenden county court which will open at Burlington September 14 Judge Willard W. Miles presiding, are as follows: John Allen West-ford, C. A. Barber, Burlington; R. P.
Brown, Williston; W. E. Ruxton, Jericho; Fred Davis St. George; P. J. Davis, Bolton; Fred W. Pay Richmond; J. B.
Henderson, Burlington; Fred C. Isham, South Burlington; J. A. Kennedy, Milton; J. S. Barker, Burlington; P. J.
Smith, Underhill; W. F. Smith, Essex; George C. Stoddard, Chittenden; J. S.
Sweet, Huntington; F. A. Thorpe, Shelburne; W. H. H. Varney, Charlotte; H.
D. Weller, Hinesburg.

ALL FOR SHOW.

It is a poor town which cannot boast of something to the stranger within its gates. The man in the anecdote related by a writer in the Yonkers Statesman was hard put to it, but he succeeded in upholding the dignity of his native birth.

"This is one of our greatest show places," said the resident who was taking a friend about his town.

"Why, it is only a vacant lot!" replied the friend.

"Certainly, but it's where the circus always performs when it comes to town," responded the proud citizen.

SWISS TRAMPS FEW.

A Poor Place for the Man Who Doesn't Want to Work.

Switzerland is not a place for tramps, because the man out of employment and who makes no effort to find work is not tolerated for a moment in that country. The district authorities will secure him a job at hard labor and little pay, and such an offer can be refused only under the penalty of going to a penal workshop. These institutions are under military discipline, the work severe, the wages a penny or three pence per day, and release is granted only upon the advice of those in charge. No difficulty is experienced in determining between beggars and unemployed, because all legitimate laborers have papers given them by the district in which they live containing information concerning the position they have held.

In every part of Switzerland are established "relief in kind" stations for the exclusive use of respectable unemployed. Only those are admitted who have had regular work during the previous three months and have been out of employment for at least five days. These men must be on the lookout for work and accept any situation that is offered, because the chronic loufer is soon detected by the police and his papers are marked so that he can never again seek refuge in a "station."—Exchange.

"Old Hickory."
The following story is told of how General Andrew Jackson got his title of "Old Hickory." Captain William Allen, who was a near neighbor of the general, met with him during the Creek war. During the campaign the soldiers were moving rapidly to surprise the Indians and were without tents. A cold March wind came on, mingled with sleet, which lasted for several days. General Jackson got a severe cold, but did not complain, as he tried to sleep in a muddy bottom among his half frozen soldiers. Captain Allen and his brother, John, cut down a stout hickory tree, peeled off the bark and made a covering for the general, who was with difficulty persuaded to crawl under it. The next morning a drunken citizen entered the camp and, seeing the tent, kicked it over. As Jackson crawled from the rains the soldier cried: "Hello, Old Hickory! Come out of your bark and fine us in a drink."—Detroit News.
